Atom B Monarchs win championship

by Jerry Grozelle, with notes from Anne Mills

The members of Minden's Atom B Monarchs hockey team have been singing a catchy tune lately. It's called 'We Are The Champions.'

A win or a tie in Beaverton on March 24 would have given Monarchs the Tri-County championship. They had earned seven points with three wins and a tie in the first four games of the championship series against the Beaverton Blades. One more point was all the Monarchs needed to bring home the championship hardware.

Beaverton made it clear early in game five that it wasn't about to give it up without a fight.

The Blades struck first — with just 16 seconds left in the first period. The competition was tight throughout the remainder of regulation time. In the last minute of the third period the Monarchs pulled their goalie in an attempt to salvage a tie. But the gamble backfired when a Beaverton sniper found the open net to salt away the win and force a game six, back in Minden the next day.

Space available for health professionals

Minden Health Centre is looking for tenants

If you build it, they will come...but will they come if there isn't any funding to support the vision?

That is the dilemma faced by Haliburton Highlands Health Services Board as renovations to the second floor of the former Hyland Crest wing are completed. The space, above the Minden Hospital Emergency Department and attached to the new Hyland Crest long-term care facility, has been designed to accommodate a community health centre, or in current phraseology, a primary care centre.

The problem at the moment is that a funding application, which was submitted to the Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care over a year ago, has not been approved and now that the space is ready to be occupied, the steering committee overseeing the area is scrambling to fill the space.

Members of the HHHS board were taken on a tour of the area during the group's meeting March 22 at the Minden facility. They were shown offices designed to accommodate community services agencies, visiting health specialists and social agencies. The south end of the building has been designed as a medical clinic with space for up to four physicians. Other areas in the renovated structure include an exercise/physiotherapy room, an area that could be used for post stroke and heart attack rehabilitation and a tub/shower room.

While the board has yet to receive funding for the centre, it has started to open some of the spaces to agencies and services that the original application envisioned occupying the complex. Dr. Jaan Roos will be starting practice in the medical clinic later this month. A formal announcement is expected when he transfers to that location.

A chiropodist has agreed to provide services at the PCC on a one day a week basis and the HHHS Diabetes Education Network has established an office in the centre and is hosting workshops in the classroom. Other community groups are making use of the meeting room at the centre as well.

The Victorian Order of Nurses is also considering the renovated auditorium as a space for its weekly Adult Day Program. The facility suits the needs of the program since it is secure and includes a large activity area, and a kitchen where clients could participate in cooking activities. The potential for related health services "just down the hall" is an attraction to the group as well.

The committee overseeing the operation of the area is continuing to search for other agencies and

Little danger of spring flooding

by Matthew Sittler

Rain, combined with warmer weather, could cause flooding in Haliburton County this spring, but Bruce Kitchen of the Trent Severn Waterway (TSW) is more concerned with filling area lakes to capacity in time for summer.

"No, I'm not too worried about it flooding up there," said the TSW's Peterborough District Manager. "There is a higher snow pile-up this year than last, but we had that in 1997 and nothing happened then either."

Kitchen said he only starts to worry about flooding if heavy rain accompanies the milder weather. Snow already melting into area rivers, because of the heat spring brings, would then be accompanied by rain which could cause flooding in certain areas. "Since it's been such an on-again, off-again type of spring, the snow has been gradually melting, which is good," he said. "Unless we get a huge amount of rainfall before the majority of the snow is gone, we shouldn't have a problem."

Every year, the Trent Severn Waterway fights an imprecise battle against Mother Nature. The struggle for the federal agency is to capture as much of the spring run-off as possible in Haliburton Highlands lakes, while not allowing the accumulation of water to create potential for flooding. The water will be held in reserve, maintaining area lake levels, and feed the Trent Severn Waterway system during the busy summer season. Utilizing an 'equal percentage method', they draw as much water as they need from Haliburton's lakes to keep things running smoothly, and hopefully as fairly, as possible.

"That's what we are concerned about," he continued. "Although, at this time last year, there was no reason for concern about that either. The worrying started later in the summer during August. We are at the mercy of the weather, as usual."

Second tax bill installment could be a shocker for some Property owners in Haliburton County are cautioned to be prepared for the possibility of a substantial increase in their tax bills when the second installment is sent out in the summer.

With the issuance of the interim tax bills, some ratepayers may be pleasantly surprised to see that their first installment hasn't increased from last year. But the second installment, for some, especially those who own waterfront property, could be substantially higher than last year.

The formula for the first installment requires municipalities to bill half of last year's total. But since this is an assessment review year, many property owners will be faced with an increase. Unfortunately, that increase will be reflected in the second installment only, rather than be spread over two installments.

Let's put it over the top!

Your contribution will help with health services throughout the area.

IN A SCULPTURED GARDEN

by Matthew Sitrler

Where else, other than Haliburton County, can the public discover a love for the arts so completely unfettered and pristine, all in a natural setting?

The area's esteemed artistic legacy has even been acknowledged with inclusion in the county's brand image: "Haliburton County, A natural work of art."

Every year, this marriage of environment and the arts continues to thrive and flourish in exciting and atypical ways. This evocative interweaving continues once again this year.

This summer, the Haliburton County Development Corporation (HCDC) Arts Committee will break new ground as it unveils a outdoor public art space. The area promises to be a true 'forest' of sculptures combining the qualities of art, environment and recreation. The Haliburton Sculpture Forest, to be located in Glebe Park in Haliburton Village, is intended to bring the joy of viewing sculptural works to an area most have already aligned with ideas of relaxation and natural pursuits.

Two of the contributing artists are from this region. Winners of a first-stage submission review, the work of these talented artists will be unveiled at the site during the summer.

Sculptor Leo Sepa, a resident of Moore Falls, has utilized recycled or 'found' objects for his winning contribution, "Moose Scraps". The work is a collage of retired vintage farm hardware formed into the shape of one of Canada's largest mammals, the moose.

Like many of Sepa's sculptures, the piece exudes wit and charm -- the time-ripened components enhancing its rustic nature.

"With more and more development and expansion into our rural areas, the need to coexist with nature by conserving and recycling becomes more crucial," says the artist.

He hopes local residents will donate scraps to be included in the 2.5 metre high piece. This in turn, will foster an interest he hopes, in recycling at Glebe Park. You can contribute a piece of cultural history to the effort by calling (705) 454-2577 or by emailing your suggestions to ironjive@sympatico.ca.

The sculpture "Dreaming Stones" is an addition brought to the project by Bancroft-based sculptor Kevin Lockau. He has chosen granite boulders as his medium. A 2.75 metre high mystical totem made from six boulders collected from six Haliburton County Townships, "Dreaming Stones" scope is again a Haliburton first. Each stone will weigh between 68 and 90 kilograms and the total weight will be about 544 kilograms.

The stones will be worked using their natural shape and will retain a patina of lichen to achieve a feel of age and importance. Patterns and imagery will then be cut in relief using diamond abrasives. Visitors to the park will be able to feel textural patterns and handle the same stone as settlers did 100-140 years ago in the opening of this county.

"My granite sculptures are made for the outdoors, to look part of the surrounding environment in all seasons," says Lockau. "In winter, snow and ice plays on the patterns and transform the textures, creating new forms and emphasis."

The totems base will be a sleeping wolf or coyote, the "Trickster" archetype, that will symbolically ground the piece. Balanced on his back will be a pattern of concentric circles which will represent time, growth rings and the square timber era.

The next boulder will represent leaves as a symbol of regeneration, life and economy, topped by one with lines representing contour plowing of farm and hilly terrain. Above this will be etched the faces of pioneers, their stories locked in the land. Perched above all of this will be an owl - a symbol of wisdom and change.

This first phase of the Haliburton Forest Sculptural project is funded by the Ontario Trillium Foundation and is being co-ordinated by a team of local consultants that includes Jim Blake, and Roy and Tilda Truchan. The project is one part of a successful ongoing drive to raise awareness of the visual arts in the Haliburton Highlands. The HCDC's Arts Committee has developed a "Where it's Art" Brochure and Guidemap, and has developed a website promoting the visual arts in Haliburton at www.haliburtonarts.on.ca

The third artist, Mary Ellen Farrow, is a Brampton resident and a participating member of the Mississauga Sculpture Tour. Also working in stone, her contribution to the Glebe Park installations is entitled "A Walk in the Woods." Standing 1.5 metres high, it

Search continues for ways to fund Minden PCC

services which would complement the vision of the centre. "We haven't given up completely on the proposal we have made to the government," Primary Care Centre co-ordinator Beth Archibald said, "But in the meantime we have to cover the cost of maintaining the facility, so we are looking for services that fit within the programs outlined in our initial proposal."

According to HHHS vice chair and committee member Jack Brezina, the development of the PCC was part of a vision for the integrated delivery of health care. "Under the proposal submitted to the ministry, the medical specialists would work as a team. The concept includes a multitude of specialists, doctors, nurse practitioners, nurses, physiotherapists, chiropractors and others working together." The concept calls not only for the treatment of problems but the promotion of wellness.

"Another important aspect of the PCC plan is the outreach component," Brezina explained. "Not only would members of the PCC team see patients at the Minden facility, they would participate in outreach which would take them to locations throughout the service area. We imagine, for example, specialists could host clinics in smaller communities like Kinmount, Dorset and Wilberforce among others." He noted that an effort would be made to co-ordinate services supplied by agencies located outside the PCC and offered through the Haliburton Hospital and Health Centre.

While the lack of government response has frustrated the committee attempting to put the space to use, it has not dampened the group's enthusiasm. "We were told that our proposal did not fit the model, and that we should try to fund it by breaking it into smaller pieces," Brezina explained. "We are doing that, even as we keep the vision of the PCC alive. Breaking it down into smaller component does not fit the earlier government call for greater integration of health care services. We saw the value of that approach and have the facility in which it could happen. Now all we need is the funding to help make it happen."

The committee is also examining the announcement last month from Premier Mike Harris regarding funding for Primary Care Networks in the province. "We would have to have five to seven positions approved in order to establish a primary care reform site," acknowledged HHHS Executive Director Foster Loucks. "That could turn out to be a challenge, but we could conceivably get such a group organized here," by combining it with individuals in other locations.

At the board meeting, it was suggested that as part of the opening of the Primary Care Centre, the Minister of Health be invited to participate. HHHS board member Peter White wondered "What are we going to show him? Shouldn't we wait until we fill some of this space up?"

Until the funding issue is clarified, the HHHS is filling the space on a piece-meal fashion. "Nurse practitioners from one pot, as well as some private practitioners such as the chiropodist from others," Loucks continued. "Even though we may not get all the funding at once, we still want to keep the site consistent with the idea of an integrated health system." Under this vision, each professional who is added as time goes by, would compliment the PCC programs that are already being funded.

Whether the committee receives funding for the PCC as a whole or must do it on a piece-meal basis, it hopes to be able to offer significant primary health services in the near future and utilize the space as it was envisioned.

Minden Primary Care Centre development co-ordinator Beth Archibald, right, provided members of the HHHS board of directors with a tour of the site during the March board meeting.

Municipal water rates in Minden increase by $90

Residents of Minden who are connected to the municipal water and sewer system can expect a significant increase in their water bills. The Minden Hills council voted to increase the annual water rate by $90 at the March council meeting.

The justification for the increase was a $41,000 deficit that was incurred last year. Much of that deficit is related to costs associated with new regulations that were introduced as a result of the Walkerton tragedy. In addition, the relocation of the water lines that cross Highway 35 are a one-time cost that will affect the 2001 budget. The $12,000 to subsidize the cost of water meters in Minden businesses is also a factor that added to the deficit.

The Environment and Public Works Committee expressed concern that the reserves for the water system are low and need to be built up to a comfort level of at least half a million dollars. The reserve currently stands at about $100,000.

Public Works Superintendent Clayton Cameron pointed out that the previous council took $240,000 from the reserves to pay off the debenture, thereby saving thousands of dollars annually in interest charges.

"It was a good decision at the time," Minden Hills CAO Tammy McKelvey said.

"Since some upgrades are required and increased monitoring of the water system have been mandated by the province, council agreed the increase was justified.

"$200 a year is not out of line for water service," said councillor Bill Obee.

It was noted that there will very likely be some unforeseen costs over the next few years, which may require some substantial reserves with which the municipality have to deal.

"There's no question, the water and sewer system in Minden is one of the municipality's most valuable assets," said Reeve Ross Rigney.

While the water rate will increase from $110 per year to $200, the good news is that the sewer rates will remain the same.

An opportunity not to be missed

This is an opportunity that should not be missed. We are referring to the potential for the development of an integrated health care services program on the second floor of the renovated Hyland Crest building....the space above the Minden Hospital Emergency Department.

When the plans for the redevelopment of the Hyland Crest site were first created, the area on the second floor presented the community and the Ministry of Health with a number of possibilities. It is a large area, encompassing numerous offices, lots of windows and a great deal of potential. It should be noted that this was not "new" space, but in fact what was left over after the residents were moved to the new long-term care facility. Brought up to standard, with a fresh coat of paint and carpet throughout, the space is now ready for occupancy.

Over a year ago the committee struck by the Haliburton Highlands Health Services Board, following community consultation, developed a plan that reflected the new approach sought by the Ministry of Health. It was a collaborative approach in which health care would be provided by a team of professionals working closely together. This collaborative approach was seen as the best way to meet the needs of the patients and make the best use of the expertise of the professionals. The proposal, which was submitted to the ministry March 2000, contained a comprehensive program that took advantage of the physical space available on the second floor, responded to the needs of the community and created an environment where health care could be provided in an integrated fashion. Outreach was an important aspect of the proposal. Not only would patients find a comprehensive variety of services at the PCC, the professionals would take their expertise out into the communities served by HHHS, especially the rural areas.

The proposal has yet to be received favourably by the Ministry of Health. There is hope that it is not completely lost, yet. In the meantime, HHHS is attempting to piece together services that reflect the initial intent of the proposal. Hopefully, the research done by the committee and the vision it saw for the future of health care services, will still come to fruition.

(NOTE: The author is a member of the HHHS board and committee which developed the PCC proposal.)

Some thoughts on sewage and litter

Editor:

As a seasonal resident and subscriber to The Times, I find some articles interesting. A couple of issues have been reported that I would like to briefly comment on and hope that these thoughts are worth publishing to present another viewpoint for discussion by Council members and County staff.

The first item: With regard to the numerous articles relating to the environmental impact of the "winter septic storage lagoons":

The septic haulers are expected to undertake and pay for an environmental assessment of their storage locations. This cost will either bury the independent or be passed on to the client. Additional costs to the client may create situations where a tank could possibly go without being pumped for a period of time and therefore create and even greater environmental impact.

It would stand to reason that, as a seasonal resident, the municipal taxes I pay are also apportioned to the upkeep of the sewage treatment facilities. It would also make sense that in the "off season" there is less demand on the sewage treatment facilities. Therefore why not dispose of the sewage at the treatment plants? Why not dispose of sewage all year at the treatment plants (both Minden and Haliburton). If the hookup connection currently does not exist for the haulers to empty the trucks surely the cost than to provide such a hookup would be less that of an environmental study. The means of a hookup ensures that the sewage is being properly dealt with.

Second item: Recently Council has noted considering a "fine" for property owners whose property is not maintained and has become unsightly to the township: I agree that properties should be maintained for many reasons but, if the grass becomes too tall, the weeds become unsightly, the brush becomes overgrown and is not visually appealing who determines these parameters.

Before Council enacts such a bylaw it should look at its own "back yard." County setbacks from the centre line of roadways: do they get the grass cut, the tree branches cleared, the ditches cleaned out of winter sand/leaves/pine needles, the garbage picked up by the County? Usually the homeowner who has pride in his property willingly cleans and maintains these areas. If the County is considering enacting such a bylaw it should also be prepared to open the dump facilities as there could possibly be more garbage, brush, grass clippings, etc. Further, it should be noted (as I understand) that if and when "Hydro One" does brush/tree line clearing that the brush and trees are left for the property owner to dispose of. Council should carefully consider such a bylaw as it may have a great impact on other issues.

But yes, let's keep our townships clean and presentable and maintain as much of the natural environment of the County for our neighbours and visitors, as in the end we will all benefit.

Watch for deer crossing the highway

Editor

In response to Terri Gardiner's letter of March 19: I'm totally amazed that she has driven this road for years and never noticed deer crossing here before now! This is a natural trail that has been used year round by not only deer but moose, bear, foxes, skunks etc; and it extends across my property to the lake.

There has been no deer baiting. I've lived here for 29 years and this trail has been active all that time and probably hundreds of years before that. People living in deer country shouldn't drive with tunnel vision and should also get their peripheral vision checked. Also, they should obey deer and moose crossing signs. This isn't the only deer crossing on Highway 35.

But watch out - when these snow conditions break, the deer craving their natural feed will be crossing anywhere, at any time. And remember, animals have the right-of-way.

Searching for Barnardo Children

Editor:

Barnardo's - the United Kingdom's largest children's charity, is trying to trace 2,500 'Homechildren' who were sent to Canada from the UK as child migrants in the period up to 1939. We also hold records for children sent by Liverpool Sheltering Homes, Marchmont Home and McPherson's Homes.

If you are a 'Homechild' and would like to find out more about why you were sent to Canada, who your birth family is and why they were unable to look after you, you can contact us to get access to your records. We would like to meet with you personally to discuss the past and answer some of your questions.

Our priority is to meet with those child migrants who are still alive. Our experience of meeting with the sons and daughters of home children who have sadly passed away has frequently prompted them to say: "If only we had made contact while mom or dad were still here."

Our participation in the child migration scheme is not a part of our organisation's history that we are proud of. We recognise that many of those sent to Canada had very distressing experiences - and we are now trying to reach as many of them as we can to offer information and support to help them come to terms with what happened to them as children.

If you are a 'Homechild' seeking information about your past, please write to:

The pen and the sword

Consider for a moment, the hot-air balloon known as Conrad Black.

Part Press Baron and all pouter pigeon, Black runs the third-largest newspaper conglomerate in the world. He rides herd over major dailies in Great Britain, the Middle East and the United States of America.

Here in Canada the name Black is tattooed on the editorial flanks of birdcage liners from one end of the country to the other - including 50 percent of the National Post. At last count, Black was sitting on an ink-stained empire worth more than half a billion dollars. The man can buy anything he wants.

Not counting respect. Not that he hasn't tried to buy that too.

Black moved to England years ago, at least partly to be closer to the levers of power that could pole-vault him into a peerage. He hobnobbed with the bluebloods and groveled around the grounds of Buckingham Palace in hopes that Liz would eventually whack him on the shoulder with a sword, saying, "Arise, Lord Black of Fleet".

Never happened.

Black's elevation to quasi-royalty required an approving nod from Ottawa and Jean Chretien turned thumbs down. But even a Lord in front of his name wouldn't win Conrad many fans. He's too obviously a plutocrat and a bully boy. The grown-up version of the fat little rich kid that nobody likes. In fact, Frank magazine, in a stroke of genius, dubbed him 'Tubby'.

As in Tubby Tompkins, the pudgy, cranky character in Little Lulu.

I'll bet that nickname will follow him to the grave. Or to put it in Conrad Blackese, 'Methinks the sobriquet bodes well to wreath him inexorably e'en o'er the River Styx'.

That's another thing about Conrad - he writes in a barely comprehensible porridge of 18th century British bombast larded with adjectives that would make James Joyce go cross-eyed.

Conrad actually wrote to potential advertisers cautioning them not to be dismayed by "the stertorious bellicosities of our adversaries". An observer once noted that Conrad "knows everything about the English language except what it's for".

In other words, communication. But, one of the perks of owning a huge chunk of the world's newspapers is you get your own bully pulpit to declaim from. Conrad often whips up tendentious missives addressing various bees in his bonnet and dispatches them to his far-flung editors.

And - quel surprise - the next day, those missives appear prominently on the op-ed pages of newspapers around the world. He was at it again recently, berating one of his own newspaper columnists (who writes under the appropriate nom de plume 'Taki') for a column he'd written criticizing Israel and the U.S. "In both its venomous character and its unfathomable absurdity" thundered Conrad, "this farrago of lies is almost worthy of Goebbels or the authors of the Protocols of the Elders of Zion".

All very laudable and noble - until you compare it to a similar edict Conrad penned about the same columnist a few years earlier. In that piece, Conrad defended the man he called 'my friend Taki' for something he'd written about a different group of U.S. citizens. Taki had written that Puerto Ricans in New York were "fat, squat, ugly, dusky, dirty and unbelievably loud. They turned Manhattan into Palermo faster than you can say spic."

Oh well. Boys will be boys - right, Conrad?

By the way, in the interests of journalistic objectivity and full disclosure, I'm delighted to report that Conrad Black is no relation.

Novice B Monarchs win Tri-County title

Minden's Novice B Monarchs won the Tri-County Bronze Division championship on March 21 with a 4-2 victory over the host Woodville team in the final game.

The Monarchs set the pace of the game when Alex Lopez let a blast go from the blue line that beat the Woodville netminder. Daniel Langpohl and Jordan Dick assisted.

Later in the period, the Monarchs gave Woodville a huge break, when an errant clearing attempt found its way into the Minden net. Moments later, Woodville scored on a penalty shot to take a 2-1 lead.

The Monarchs played hard in the second, and the effort paid off when Daniel Langpohl put a shot high into the mesh to knot the game at 2-2. Shayne Lund assisted.

The rest of the second period remained scoreless, thanks in part, to the efforts of Minden defencemen Joey Findeis and Dylan Reynolds, who helped to keep the Woodville team bottled up in its own end much of the time. Tanner Warburton and Alex Lopez worked hard to keep the opposition at bay, but when the Woodville snipers got a chance for a shot, Colton Dick was up to the task, blocking all attempts for the rest of the game. The entire Monarchs defensive unit set up a wall that the Woodville squad couldn't penetrate. Meanwhile, forwards Logan Brown, Shayne Lund, Jordan Dick, J.J. Kerr, Alex Treharne and Daniel Langpohl kept the pressure on, even during the early part of the third frame when the Monarchs were short-handed.

Minden took the lead with a goal by J.J. Kerr, assisted by Alex Treharne. That goal proved to be the game winner. But the Monarchs weren't finished. With 2:27 remaining in the game, Jordan Dick added an insurance goal, from Daniel Langpohl.

The win gave the Monarchs the championship victory. They came home with the Tri-County Novice B hardware for the 2000-2001 season.

Minden players Shayne Lund and Logan Brown were honoured with awards for their positive play throughout the series.

End of season bonspiel won by Ryan Cole rink

The junior curling season came to a close Sunday, March 25, at the Minden Curling Club. The annual end of the season bonspiel gave the young curlers one last opportunity to demonstrate the skills they learned over the season. Many parents and supporters were on hand to share in the day.

Youth Curling was organized this year by Jean Dutka. Dave MacKay and Gord Wood served as coaches, with the assistance of Rawn Brown, Bob Walli and Peter Alexander. The 35 youngsters were divided into two age levels for the weekly instruction sessions and games.

Top spot in the wrap-up bonspiel went to the rink skipped by Ryan Cole. His foursome received a trophy donated by the Senior Curling Club. Jake Walker's foursome captured second place at the Spiel and was presented with the Kernohan Septic Service Trophy. Steve Draker led his team to a third place finish and claimed the Minden Seniors Curling Club trophy.

In addition to a full day of curling, the young curlers were treated to a luncheon and a host of door prizes.

What will they think of next?

HONDA FOREMAN RUBICON

"Quite simply the smartest, most advanced ATV ever built. Period!"

Here it is: the most powerful, most sophisticated ATV we've ever built. The Foreman Rubicon breaks new ground with a big 499 cc four-valve engine that's mounted sideways in the frame like our other utility ATVs, plus has liquid cooling to ensure consistent operating temperature in all conditions. But the biggest news is the way that power gets to the front and rear wheels: the revolutionary Hondamatic continuously-variable hydraulic transmission. It's way more durable and versatile than a drive-belt tranny, yet has the same gas- and- go ease of use.

Congratulations to all who participated in the Italy and Minden Unite Fun Bonspiel held on Saturday, March 24 and to all the Juniors who took part in the annual wrap-up bonspiel on Sunday, March 25. Thanks to the many hard working volunteers and sponsors who made these events such a wonderful success.

The end of curling season is fast approaching, with the leagues finishing up playoffs this past Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday at 8 p.m. A hearty round of applause to all, no matter what your final standing was.

Anyone who has participated in curling has had fun, exercise and friendship, so each of us is truly a winner!

As always, the annual Ladies "Sweep Into Spring" marked the end of this year's curling season.

Host Cheryl Murdoch said there were almost a hundred boisterous women challenging for the wonderful prize table. Bravo to the winners and all who took part in this super weekend.

It is so great to meet new curlers and renew past acquaintances. As always the curling was top notch and so was the fun!

This being my last column of the season, I would like to thank all those who took my advice and checked out the world of curling. If I have you almost convinced to give it a try, meet me at the club in September and I'll show how easy it is. Many, many thanks to the Minden Times for always finding space for the curling news.

Monarchs defeat Beaverton in six

March 25. The Blades brought along a very vocal cheering section. Beaverton got off to a good start, scoring the opening goal at the 8:20 mark of the 10-minute first period. It looked like the visitors would take the 1-0 lead into the second as the clock ticked down at the end of the first. But, with 19 seconds left, Ryan Kerr scored the equalizer, launching a shot from just inside the blue line through a maze of players. Roch Peterson assisted.

The second period was just 50 seconds old when the Blades regained the lead. It took the Monarchs just 21 seconds to get back on even terms. Jake Findeis was the marksman, from Ryan Kerr and Steve Kerr. A minute and 12 seconds later, Jared Mills gave Minden the lead for the first time in the game. Brittany Hicks and Ryan Kerr set up the go-ahead goal. Barely a minute had elapsed when Mills notched his second goal to give the Monarchs a 4-2 advantage. Roch Peterson and Daniel Walker assisted on that one.

The Monarchs could envision the shiny league championship trophy in the lobby as they swapped ends with Beaverton for the third period. They never lost their focus. The defense kept the opposition corralled for most of the final period and Mike Teye stoned the Beaverton forwards when they did get a shot on net.

With three and a half minutes remaining, Davis Reynolds erased any hope the Blades had of extending the series. His goal, assisted by Steve Kerr, gave the Monarchs a three-goal advantage with 3:29 showing on the clock.

When the buzzer sounded to end the game, the air was filled with gloves and cheers that Minden fans were sure could be heard in several nearby towns.

All the hard work this season paid off for the Monarchs. They were presented with the championship hardware — the Stanley Cup of the Atom Tri-County League.

Peewees Win A Championship of Cannington tournament

The Minden Monarchs OMHA Peewees traveled to Cannington on March 24 to cap their season by competing in an eight-team tournament.

Minden 4, Hunstville 2 (Shootout)

The tournament started with a very close game. Minden got on the board first when Travis Walker scored seven minutes into the game, with assists from David Toye and Gavin Hicks.

Hunstville replied two minutes later to tie the game.

Walker scored again with only 10 seconds left in the second period to give Minden the lead again. Gavin Hicks assisted.

Hunstville replied again early in the third to tie the game at two goals apiece.

Minden put on the pressure throughout the third period but could not buy a goal, thanks to some strong work by the Hunstville goalie. Darrin Brown and Mark Fisher were denied on a number of good chances.

The game ended tied and went right to a shootout. Sean Keaney and Andrew Bull each scored for Minden, with some nifty deke moves and Mike Lennox stopped all three Hunstville shots to give Minden the victory. Andrew Bull was awarded the "Hustler" award by the opposing coaching staff.

Minden 4, West Muskoka 3

It's always a high spirited match against arch-rival West Muskoka and this game was no different. The first period went back and forth with good intensity. The game remained scoreless until Brown scored after receiving a pass from Fisher with 10 seconds left in the first period.

West Muskoka tied the match in the middle of the second period and the game remained deadlocked until Sean Keaney outmuscled a couple of West Muskoka defenders and dished off to Fisher in the slot who buried the snap shot. Barely 50 seconds later, Bull scored with a couple of dandy assists from Keaney and Brown to give Minden a two goal lead.

Brown scored again in the third period, with assists from Keaney and Justin McKelvey and it looked like Minden was in complete control.

West Muskoka played hard until the end and scored twice in the last two minutes to make the game close. But Minden skated away with the victory. Justin McKelvey got the "Hustler" award for this game.

Minden 3, Millbrook 1

Minden scored three goals in the second period to take control of the game against Woodville. Walker scored another two and Fisher added a single. Assists went to Fisher (2), Steve Draker and McKelvey. Cody Mills and Adam Googh played strong two-way games to help Minden control the play.

Lennox, who was given the "Hustler" award for this contest, had a shutout going until Millbrook scored with only a minute left in the game.

With the third straight victory, Minden took the "A" Championship of the tournament. This was a fitting way for a very good and enjoyable season to end.

Raising money the fast way

Raising money and awareness of the problems in the third world are the goals of a group of students who have agreed to go without food for up to 30 hours.

Tim Wessell of Norland has organized "famine" and will be hosting the students taking part at the Pioneer Baptist Church in Norland.

The students will gather pledges for their their fast. They hope to raise close to $2000. There are two groups. The younger participants will start their fast after lunch on Friday, April 6, while the older students start at 6:30 a.m. that morning. Both groups will have completed their pledges at 12:30 Saturday afternoon.

Wessell, who will be supervising the students, says there will be a variety of "Survivor"-like activities to keep the youths occupied. The local fast is part of a cross-Canada World Vision fund-raiser. Last year the effort raised $2.9 million.

will be mounted on a rock for increased stature. According to Farrow, snow will only enhance its beauty. "It will appear to have a top hat and an arm full of snow," she says. "In other seasons, the limestone will blend with its surroundings so as not to jar the senses, but to be a pleasant surprise as you approach it." The agreeable, Junoesque lines of the hiker will give the sculpture a winsome, approachable, quality. It's tranquil face inviting the viewers gaze, Farrow's human scale and serenity is hoped to create an engaging contrast to Lockau's larger than life mysticism and Sepa's imposing moose. This discerning contrast won't come effortlessly.

Thirty-three submissions arrived from across this region and Ontario. To ensure impartiality, Jurors Barb Bolin, Pam Kinney, Carole Finn, Marion Hare and Michael Belmore removed all identifying information from each submission. The works were then assigned a number by the consulting team who used a rating system so that the same criteria would be applied to each piece.

Summer beckons as spring enchants the proposed site with mud and damp walkways. Whether cast against the harsh, dark lines of winter, the long, moon-lit shadows of an autumn's eve, or brilliantly enhanced with the strong, warm light of mid-July, Haliburton's sculptural forest at Glebe Park will undoubtedly strike a resounding chord with natural art lovers who search it out or happen upon it by chance.

Anaphylaxis:What can be done to protect those who are allergic?

by Matthew Sitrer

The number of individuals with life-threatening allergies have doubled in the last ten years. These people are at risk everyday because of food most of us take for granted.

Anaphylaxis (anna-fill-axis) -- it's hard to pronounce. It's even harder to live with.

Sometimes referred to as allergic shock, anaphylaxis is a severe allergic reaction which can lead to rapid death. This occurs when the body's immune system responds to harmless substances as though they were harmful invaders. Anaphylactic sufferers respond with an extreme systemic reaction that could begin with itching, hives, vomiting, diarrhea and swelling. Within the first few minutes, their throat closes, and the person becomes unconscious and usually dies. Only epinephrine, also known as adrenalin, which is a hormone that is produced naturally in the body as a response to stress, can help. It is the only drug that can stop anaphylaxis symptoms. Working on the cardiovascular and respiratory systems, it constricts blood vessels and relaxes the muscles of the chest.

Peanuts are the leading cause of food-induced anaphylaxis, but many life-threatening foods exist. These include: Tree nuts, milk, eggs, wheat, seafood, soy and sesame. Other products/experiences such as drugs, insect stings, latex, hormone supplements and even exercise can all induce the symptoms. The amounts of peanut butter that can result in the death of an individual can be measured on the head of a pin. Even its smell can cause severe problems.

One tool which can be used to identify ways of dealing with this problem is information. Informing community leaders of areas that specifically deal with large numbers of people, such as restaurants, churches, and municipal offices/meeting places it is hoped it will alleviate worry, and foster an understanding of the allergic reactions some people can have to common food groups. Some of the most widely used food and medical products are culprits that now elicit toxic reactions in many people.

A free information seminar dealing with the devastating effects of anaphylaxis is being presented at Lakeside Baptist Church (located at the foot of Park Street in Haliburton Village) on Saturday, April 7, at 1:00 p.m.

Marilyn Allen, Director of the Anaphylaxis Network of Canada will share personal experiences, research, common-sense policies to making peanut-free zones work and showcase teaching videos and handbooks.

Health Canada published an Anaphylaxis handbook in 1996 that details what school and other officials can do to protect their students and members of the public. It suggests that schools develop policies in the three general areas of communication, avoidance of these main allergens and the development of procedures based on treatment protocols prescribed by family physicians. Usually, an immediate epinephrine injection, followed by a trip to the hospital, is a good start at combating the serious effects of this condition. The concern is particularly high because often the allergens are not readily identified in the food that is being offered in public locations such as church and community halls or even restaurants.

The Township of Minden Hills Requires

a TAX COLLECTOR and
a TAX CLERK

Position No. 1: Tax Collector

The Tax Collector reports to the Treasurer and will be responsible for the tax collection operations and assisting the Treasurer in the development and implementation of financial goals and objectives relative to the collection of taxes.

The successful applicant must have a thorough knowledge of all legislation and regulations relative to tax billing functions, preferably through a post secondary program, and Municipal accounting principles and practices in a computerized environment. A thorough knowledge of the Auto-Administrator (USTI) Tax Software system or a comparable software package and strong communication skills are a definite necessity, and a minimum of five years experience in a related position is required. The AMTC designation is an asset.

This position is a bargaining unit position with CUPE, Local 4286. Compensation for the position is currently under review. A comprehensive benefit package will be available.

Position No. 2: Tax Clerk

The Tax Clerk reports to the Treasurer and assists the Tax Collector to provide a variety of clerical and administrative support to the tax function and general municipal administration.

The successful applicant must have a solid knowledge of and a skill base in clerical functions, and a basic knowledge of general accounting, municipal property tax levies, billings and collections in a computerized environment. Strong communication skills and a minimum of two years experience in a related position are required. A working knowledge of Auto-Administrator (USTI) Tax Billing/Receivable Software applications and experience in tax collection would be definite assets.

Compensation for the position will be $14.85 per hour, pursuant to the Collective Agreement with CUPE Local 4286.

Qualified candidates are invited to submit a resume in confidence, clearly marked for the position being applied for, by 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 18, 2001, to: Township of Minden Hills, P.O. Box 359, Minden, Ontario K0M 2K0. Attention: Ms. Mary Jane Irwin, Treasurer, e-mail: mjirwin@county.haliburton.on.ca. Telephone: (705) 286-1260 Fax: (705) 286-4917.

Personal information and supporting material is used in accordance with the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. We thank all applicants for applying, but only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.

Turning back the clocks at Hyland Crest

It's hard to believe that by the time you read this we will be into April. Let's hope it will bring warmer temperatures, especially for Easter, which is almost upon us. Also we will have switched to daylight savings time which always leads to adjusting all those appliances with clocks. We wonder how many of you remembered to set the time ahead before you went to bed on Saturday. There always seems to be at least one person who forgets. Oh well, we shouldn't worry. There should be enough people around to remind us and also to help us reset our watches and clocks. It's just another signal to mark a change in seasons.

It is hoped that with the warming of the weather, some of us will be able to get outside for some fresh air and walking. It will certainly be good to do this once again. Regardless of the weather we can get our exercises with our Keep Fit and Fitness for Mind and Body programs which run three times a week. It is good to see so many residents participating. One was heard saying, "It helps to keep the blood flowing". So true!

Bingo has been quite popular this week and one session of bingo yielded Winnie Barnum, Edith Russell and Violet Danilko the big winners while in another Lillian Harrison came out on top (again) with Margaret Bessie a close second. It seems that Lillian certainly has a lucky streak when it comes to bingo.

Of course another way to have some fun is to play cards and our regular players certainly enjoy their weekly competition. This time Margaret and Marjorie were partners against Roy and Harold. When we asked for the results of the last get-together we were told, "The two old hens clobbered the two old roosters by a score of 2 to 1! This produced much laughter and we thought: isn't it great to have such a sense of humour and the ability to laugh at one's self? Who knows what next week will bring?

Music has brought us much enjoyment over the past few days. We welcomed the Grandfathers to our Happy Hour and "The Gang" was here for our Pub Night. Lots of good foot stompin' music and it is great to see others joining in. Walter Ackerblade and Edna McElwain both played the spoons at our Pub Night. Gord Kennedy delighted some of us downstairs with his piano playing the other day and "A Joyful Noise" was with us another evening. It was good to see Claire once again with them, cast and all.

Those of us who enjoy crafts have just about finished the items for Easter. A couple of residents, Eileen Barry and Ruth Williams, have been quite busy cutting out flowers for the flower garden that will be displayed in the downstairs activity room. Speaking of flowers there, was a great discussion with some folks on the lower floor about spring and summer flowers. So you can see we are quite impatient for the colour and warmth of spring to arrive. Won't it be just great to see green again!

Senior League

by the Roving Reporters

We bid fond farewell to Phyllis Sutherland, a staff member who has been with us for 22 years. Phyllis' last day of work was March 31 and before she left she was treated to a surprise dinner party at Jasper's. Many staff joined in to wish Phyllis well and all who were able to attend reported a great time. We also wish Phyllis all the best and hope she gets to do all the things she wants to now that she doesn't have to punch the clock. We will miss you Phyllis and we hope we will see you from time to time.

We were pleased to have Marion Sedgewick join us at our Chapel Service this week, as we held a memorial for Tom Cox who passed away recently. Playing the organ for us was Jean Cox. Thank you Jean. That was much appreciated. Our thanks also goes out to Rev. Burgess who is faithful in visiting us every weekend. It is so good to see his smiling face when he enters our home.

A group from Lakeside Baptist Church were our hosts at our recent Tea Party. It was a lovely tea and their company was much enjoyed. A man by the name of Mr. Hardy was busy snapping pictures during the tea. It would be interesting to see the photos that he took.

We have a new resident to welcome, a lady by the name of Margaret Foote. We hope she settles in quickly and look forward to having her join us at our activities. Also, here for a short time on respite, is Emma Hewitt. We hope she enjoys her stay with us.

Guess that's just about all the news. However we welcome a new volunteer by the name of Sue Miller. Sue helps out during some of our activities. Thanks, your help is much appreciated.

We say goodbye to you now and leave you with this thought.

*You are writing a gospel,
A chapter each day.
By deeds that you do.
By words that you say.
Men read what you write,
Whether faithless or true,
Say, what is the gospel, according to you?*

THE TOWNSHIP OF MINDEN HILLS requires a Museum Coordinator

The Township of Minden Hills is seeking a creative and energetic self-starter to oversee the day-to-day operation of the County Town Museum in Minden. The successful candidate will have good computer skills, a keen interest in local history and excellent public relations/communication skills. A reminder of the Minden and District Horticultural Society meeting tomorrow, Tuesday, April 3 at 7:15 p.m. at the Minden Community Centre. Bonnie Pentney is the guest speaker with the topic of "How to Keep Your Garden Well Groomed." The luncheon focus will be on maple syrup as 'tis that season!! Bring along your favourite examples.

Haliburton County received a Road Safety Challenge Grant to help promote road safety the week of May 5 to 12. As part of that promotion The Haliburton Health Unit is hosting a 55 Alive Driver Refresher Course on May 9 at the Pinestone Inn. The Ministry of Transportation encourages attendance at this course as a refresher for older adults. Adults 70 and older may be required to complete the course to renew their licenses. For all others there may be the added incentive of a break in insurance rates as a certificate is offered on completion of the six hour course. This is the first time that the course has been offered in our county. Up to now, people have had to travel to Lindsay. They need 20 people to hold the course and the cost per participant is $45. Please register before April 25 at the Health Unit in Haliburton, and/or call 457-1391.

The Haliburton Highlands Genealogy Group holds its next meeting on Wednesday April 11, in the Minden Public Library at 6 p.m. Starting with any business and chat, after which at 7 p.m. June Partridge will discuss, "Is Part of Your Family Tree Already in Print?" This should be an informative talk which we hope will give members plenty of research ideas. The usual 'Bring & Win' table will add to the fun of the evening. Coffee and cookies will be available. Visitors welcome.

A communique arrived at my desk declaring it was National Friendship Week. What a wonderful concept. The friendship referred to had most to do with compassion, in a global sense, for those much less fortunate, different from ourselves and less free than we are. The really difficult issues are touched on that we must deal with as we look out for people enduring those conditions. It is hard to look at home too. Friendship. Compassion. Tolerance: the big things. But also thinking just of friendship and how important it is.

Women especially nurture their friendships and rely on them to get through all the ins and outs of living. I, of course, know more about women's friendships, being a woman, but I am sure men also value friendships in their lives. In these times of so much change, friends can become our families. A community of friends can be our support system. Nurturing friendships, respecting friendships, allowing friendships to follow their course, knowing when to hang on and when to let go. A friendship between two people is like a microcosm of the huge global picture of how we get along with each other. Or that is how I see it anyway. Life is grand!! Life is complex!!

Take a friend to lunch this week!!

SCORING NEWS

Thursday, March 22: Euchre at the Minden Legion: Brenda Deguire and Thelma Francis each won most lone hands. Maria Tschida and Bill Van Dyke won high scores and Marcel Roussel and Marg Bradbury were low. Helen Skelding, Harvey Bunker, Ed Hisson and Jim Bradbury won the other prizes.

Friday, March 23: Duplicate Bridge at Echo Hills: In first with 60% were Joan Galley and Mike Collins. In second with 54% were Norma Crewson and Stella McMillan. Following in third with 57% were Maria and Nick Lehoczy.

Saturday, March 24: Bid Euchre at Staunworth Terrace: Iris Taylor was high with 262 followed by Margaret Fletcher in second with 260. Pat Scadden, Bill Van Dyke and Marcel Roussel found hidden scores and Iris Taylor won two moonshots and Georgina Deeks won one. They had the largest group ever there that afternoon with 24 in attendance.

Monday, March 26: Euchre with the Friendship Club at St. Paul's: Georgina Deeks won lone hands. Betty Barlow was high woman and Ken Rowden was high man. Iris Taylor found the hidden score. Tim Sharpe was low man and Lorna Hicks was low woman. Fun was had by all!!

Bid Euchre at the Kinmount Legion: Top player was Bill Morgan followed by Dorothy McElwain. Sherry Morrison, Esther Lee and Mildred St. Thomas each won a moonshot. Ruth Kellett was the lucky winner of the 50/50 draw.

Cribbage at the Minden Legion: Maxine Cross was top winner with Pat Scadden in second. Lots of folks were out as Esther Lee, Bill Deguire, Doug Robinson, Verna McDonald and Jean Scadden won the draws Euchre at Club 35: Josie Cheesman won the 50/50 draw. Rob Evans won most lone hands. Sharon Evans and Paul Thompson were the top scorers and Verna Sawyer and Alf Whyman were the lows. Helen Windsor walked off with the baloney.

Tuesday, March 27: Senior Bid Euchre at the Minden Legion: High scores were won by Georgina Parkes, Ellie Langpohl, Ann Baker and Rob Evans. Moonshots went to Marie Dennie with one, Rob Evans with two and Kevin Maloney with another one. Verna McDonald, Sharon Evans and Bev Johnson each found a hidden score.

Bridge at Stanhope: Well this group is getting it together now!! Three slams were bid and made last week. One slam was made by Mike Collins and Betty Schlotter and another two by Dorothy Strype with first Betty Roszell and the other with Muriel McIntosh. Dorothy Strype went on to win the highest score of the day which was an amazing 8460!! To top everything off Dorothy also won the special award for the day, the P.P. Award!! In second, with 5340 was Betty Schlotter; third, with 5170, Mike Collins; and Muriel McIntosh was fourth with 5040. A good day of bridge!!

Euchre at Lochlin: Men's high and low went to George Bartley and Chris Hill. Women's high and low went to Emily Harvie and Reta Crofts (much to Reta's chagrin!!). Lone hands was won by Don Curry and Helen Burk won the 50/50 draw.

Wednesday, March 21: Duplicate Bridge at Parklane: The Howell was played. In first with 64% were Alex Mcleod and Reet Murray. In second with 63% were Bill Sandford and Hal Beach. In third with 57% were Glen and Rita Lockhart.

Wednesday, March 28: Duplicate Bridge at Parklane: More players that afternoon, so the Mitchell was played. North/South, in first with 57%, were Ross Fletcher and Muriel McIntosh. In second with 56% were Judy Neimann and Ev Morgan. East/West, in first with 60%, were Bill Sandford and Hal Beach. In second with 54% were Isabel Clee and Dorothy Thayer.
